Aileen's Message

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

NOVEMBER 2019 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Arigato gozaimasu to my sensei, Karen Kirk, who impressed us all with her ikebana creations. She made it look easy but when we are faced with making a pleasing arrangement, I think most would agree that it isn't as easy as it looks. By the way, the flowers were premium carnations so they should hold up longer than the regular ones you usually see at our local markets. I've only studied ikebana for four months but one thing I've noticed is that successful ikebana arrangements resemble sculpture and art. Thank you, Sensei, for being the presenter for our November program on short notice.

Our participation at Temari's Trash and Treasure Sale on November 3 yielded $556 for the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund! Thank you, Jennie Tsue and Alisa Au for assisting that day. It was quite busy all day long but our customers seemed to be happy with the fabric and beads we sold at bargain prices. Thank you also to Aileen Chong and Lee Harada who assisted with setting up. Lee also donated some beautiful pieces of jewelry that were sold.

As I write this, I find it hard to believe that the holidays are upon us. The Guild Holiday Party is what kicks off the Christmas season for me. Hope you can make it and use it as an opportunity to get to know your fellow members better. The Guild will provide some prizes for the games but we are also looking for donations.

I might sound like a broken record but we do need our members' input for suggestions for future programs. Any suggestions can be made to any board member. Laurie Matsushima found a list of classes that are offered elsewhere in the community. We will check them out. If you hear of anything that you think might interest our members, please let us know. Thank you, Alisa Au, for volunteering to help with finding future programs. Program suggestions should have some substance, preferably with an educational element.

See you at 6:00 at Assagio's!

Handweaver's Hui Flag Exhibit Winner - Ann Castelfranco

Congratulations to Ann Castelfranco, the recipient of the HSFAG award at the recently opened Hawaii Handweaver's Hui exhibit. Ann's piece, Shadow Runner, was selected by jurors Carol and Sanit Khewhok. Hui member Ghislaine Chock will be our presenter on April 1, 2020 and Ann has agreed to bring her award-winning piece so we can see her woven piece in person.

If you don't want to wait until April, here's more information about the exhibition which is currently on display at the Hawaii Pacific University Art Gallery in Kaneohe: "Threads Allure: An Interactive Relationship Between Woven Fibers and Viewers" The exhibit features wearable art, art pieces and functional items for the home. Feel and touch the threads and fabrics created by spinners and handweavers throughout Hawaii. The show ends on January 10, 2020. Gallery hours: 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Saturday. For more information: Hawaiihandweavers.org.

Handweaver's Hui Exhibit on display until January 10th.
