& White Elephant Sale

Come and join us on October 2nd, for a fun night of comradarie, creative projects, and “da best” shopping ever. On Wednesday, 7pm HSGAG will be hosting their annual “Make and Take Night - White Elephant Sale. Talented members from our guild will share their crafting expertise with several quickie make and take projects for our guests. Browse the White Elephant Sale and find something you can’t live without. Don’t forget to donate your former treasures to make space for your new ones.

Please bring your own scissors for the make-and take projects

Aileen Chong will show you how to fold simple and complex paper stars. Cynthia Oshiro will show you how to make cute mini pom poms for clothing, ornaments, pillows, etc. Cynthia will provide all you need: yarn, forks, socks, and scissors. Aileen Kaneshiro will share three gift topper ideas.

and if you are free. . .

On October 12th, HSFAG will be participating in HISAM (Hawaii State Art Museum) “Make & Take - Second Saturday.” Garlands never fail to brighten up a space. Whether it’s to celebrate a holiday, add some charm to a party, or to add some color to a room, garlands will add cheer to any space. Join the Hawaii Stitchery & Fibre Arts Guild and Circle K International and create the garland of your choice. Which one will it be? The Ghost Garland, the colorful balls, or the paper airplane garland. The choice is yours!

AILEEN'S MESSAGE

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

SEPTEMBER 2019 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

There's so much to talk about—so let's get started...

Thank you, Carrie Johnson, for the September program on chain maille! You always come up with great original projects when asked to do a program. We are fortunate to have you as a member. For those who are unaware, Carrie is active in the national beading community so we are fortunate to have her do mini workshops for us at a bargain rate. Please wear your finished jewelry pieces at the October meeting.

Thanks to all who volunteered to do a make-and-take for the October Meeting! There would not be a program without your willingness to share. And, don't forget to scan your home for anything that is suitable to contribute to the White Elephant Sale. I know we all have things that seem to just occupy space in our homes—I found three boxes of "stuff" and hope you will also do the same. In addition to the contribution of our members, we have been fortunate to receive generous donations of several boxes of fabric and drapery samples from Chris Stengle and Kreative Kamaaina. The fabric is from a very gracious former quilter who will be relocating to the mainland. The fabric is in excellent condition. The drapery samples are small but beautiful. With some creative thinking, great works can be made with them! As usual, the proceeds from the sale will go to the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund.

If you have any spare paper bags at home, please bring it to the October meeting. You'll need a bag to bring home your new treasures from the sale and they are also needed for Second Saturday. We are making garlands this year so the bags will be needed to make it easier to carry the projects home. We are still looking for volunteers for Second Saturday on October 12. The sign-up sheet will be passed around at the October meeting.

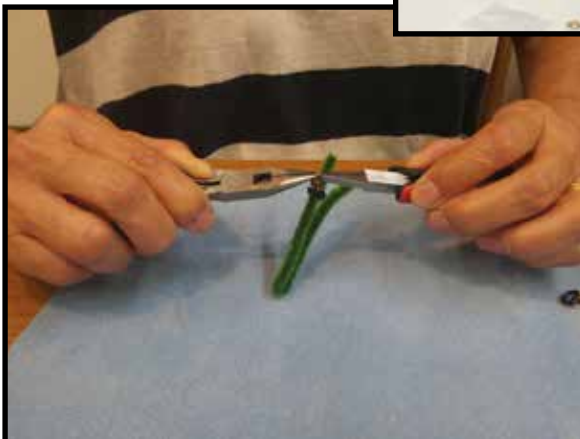

Like last year, there will be a prep session at Palolo Home so that we can spend some time with Lorraine Tokuyama. It will take place on Saturday, October 5 around 11:00. As of this writing, I am still awaiting confirmation from Palolo for the room but we will be there even if the Farm Hall is not available. Bring your own lunch, scissors, and any reading material you'd like to share with Lorraine. Lorraine says she will read anything—from quick and fast books to epic novels.

Reservations have been made for the private room at Assagio's Ala Moana for our annual Holiday Celebration. There will be a sign-up sheet at the October meeting or you can also RSVP president@hsfag.com if you plan to attend. The room can only fit 29 people and I need to call in an accurate final count so please let me know if you plan to attend asap. Anyone have any suggestions for games??

We are looking for fresh faces to serve on the board. If you are willing to share your positive energy, ideas and a few hours a month to keep the Guild afloat, please email me. All board positions are available since the current board members have served beyond their terms. We are also looking for program ideas for 2020. It's amazing how the months keep sneaking up on us!

See you in October—hopefully with your bag of contributions to the White Elephant Sale!
